Evaluation Report for DLG-funded Other Programme (Gifted Education) [2023 – 2024]

| Programme   | Objective(s)         | Targets                | Duration /     | Deliverables | Evaluation                  | Expenditure |
|-------------|----------------------|------------------------|----------------|--------------|-----------------------------|-------------|
| title       |                      | (No./level/selection)  | Start date     |              |                             |             |
| 新詩寫作班       | 由資深作家趙曉彤小            | 學生人數:4人                | 6節             | 閱讀及創作        | 根據問卷調查結果顯                   | $12,000    |
|             | 姐帶領學生閱讀文學            | 級別:中四及中五               | 每節2小時          | 新詩           | 示,全部學生認為導師準                 |             |
|             | 作品,並通過文學散            | 由科任老師推薦對新              |                |              | 時上課、態度友善、教學                 |             |
|             | 步,發掘創作靈感,創           | 詩創作特別有興趣學              |                |              | 盡責及表達技巧良好。他                 |             |
|             | 作新詩                  | 生參加                    |                |              | 們亦認同課程能提高他                  |             |
|             |                      |                        |                |              | 們的閱讀和寫作的興趣                  |             |
|             |                      |                        |                |              | 及能力,成效令人鼓舞。                 |             |
| Hong Kong   | To equip students to | Number: 4              | 4 lessons      | Assignments/ | The students were satisfied | $1,500     |
| Mathematics | participate in the   | Level: F.4 and F.5     | 1.5 hours per  | Quiz         | with the course and the     |             |
| Olympiad    | HKMO competition     | students               | lesson         |              | tutor.                      |             |
| Training    |                      | Selection: Awardees in |                |              | Three students won the      |             |
|             |                      | different mathematics  |                |              | second – class Honour and   |             |
|             |                      | competitions           |                |              | one student won the         |             |
|             |                      |                        |                |              | third – class Honour in the |             |
|             |                      |                        |                |              | Individual Event in the     |             |
|             |                      |                        |                |              | Heats of the competition.   |             |
| Mathematics | To strengthen the    | Number: 10             | 5 lessons      | Assignments/ | Most of the participants    | $10,000    |
| Gifted      | mathematical skills  | Level: F.4 and F.5     | Senior level - | Quiz         | were satisfied with the     |             |
| Programme   |                      | students               | core           |              | programme. They agreed      |             |
|             |                      | Selection: A selection | 2 hours per    |              | that the programme could    |             |
|             |                      | test was given to the  | lesson         |              | improve their knowledge     |             |
|             |                      | students               | Advanced Level |              | in mathematics. They        |             |
|             |                      |                        | 2.5 hours per  |              | wanted to join the course   |             |
|             |                      |                        | lesson         |              | again.                      |             |

| Physics  | > To equip high potential  | Number: 19         | 25 sessions | Participation | The students were satisfied | $22,500 |
|----------|----------------------------|--------------------|-------------|---------------|-----------------------------|----------|
| Olympiad | students in Physics to     | Level: F.4         | 3 hours per | in The Hong   | with the course and the     |          |
| Training | participate in The Hong    | students           | lesson      | Kong Physics  | tutor.                      |          |
|          | Kong Physics Olympiad      | Selection:         |             | Olympiad      |                             |          |
|          | (HKPhO) 2024               | High-achieving     |             | (HKPhO)       | The school team got the     |          |
|          | > To widen students' scope | Physics students   |             | 2024          | Best School Award.          |          |
|          | in Physics issues and      |                    |             |               |                             |          |
|          | enrich their knowledge of  |                    |             |               | Four students got the Third |          |
|          | the subject                |                    |             |               | Class Honours prize in      |          |
|          | > To equip elite students  |                    |             |               | The HKPhO 2024.             |          |
|          | with higher order thinking |                    |             |               |                             |          |
|          | skills                     |                    |             |               |                             |          |
|          | > To upgrade students'     |                    |             |               |                             |          |
|          | competence in the subject  |                    |             |               |                             |          |
| Ceramics | To strengthen the throwing | Number: 10         | 5 sessions  | Every student | Most of the students were   | $6,000  |
| Throwing | skills                     | Level: F.4 to F.6  | 2 hours per | finished 3-4  | satisfied the enrichment    |          |
| Class    |                            | students           | lesson      | pieces of     | programme.                  |          |
|          |                            | Selection: The top |             | artwork in 5  |                             |          |
|          |                            | students in a      |             | lessons       |                             |          |
|          |                            | formative          |             |               |                             |          |
|          |                            | assessment last    |             |               |                             |          |
|          |                            | year or teachers'  |             |               |                             |          |
|          |                            | recommendation     |             |               |                             |          |

Evaluation Report for DLG-funded Network programme [2023 – 2024]

| Programme | Objective(s)                | Targets               | Duration /     | Deliverables    | Evaluation                 | Expenditure |
|-----------|-----------------------------|-----------------------|----------------|-----------------|----------------------------|-------------|
| title     |                             | (No./level/selection) | Start date     |                 |                            |             |
| Music     | > To offer music curriculum | Number: 4             | The courses    | Attendance      | Most of the students could | $42,600    |
|           | and prepare the students    | Level: F4. to F.5     | were taught in | records and     | fulfill the attendance     |             |
|           | for the HKDSE Music         | Selection: The        | 276 lecture    | result slips of | requirement and passed     |             |
|           | Examination                 | students with         | hours across   | the             | the examinations.          |             |
|           | > To equip students who     | outstanding musical   | three academic | examination     |                            |             |
|           | intend to further their     | talents.              | years.         | for each        |                            |             |
|           | music studies at tertiary   |                       | For the        | student         |                            |             |
|           | level with fundamental      |                       | academic year  |                 |                            |             |
|           | music training              |                       | of 2023-2024,  |                 |                            |             |
|           |                             |                       | the courses    |                 |                            |             |
|           |                             |                       | started from   |                 |                            |             |
|           |                             |                       | September      |                 |                            |             |
|           |                             |                       | 2023.          |                 |                            |             |
|           |                             |                       | A three-hour   |                 |                            |             |
|           |                             |                       | lesson was     |                 |                            |             |
|           |                             |                       | taught weekly  |                 |                            |             |
|           |                             |                       | per class.     |                 |                            |             |